THE GREAT METEORITE CRATER

In Northern Arizona, North of Route 66. Many centuries ago millions of tons of metal struck from the sky at a speed of between 8 and 48 miles a second to plow through fifteen hundred feet of solid rock and form an enormous crater which after centuries of erosion is still 570 feet deep and over 4,000 feet across.

COLOR PHOTOGRAPHY BY STAN DAVIS

PETLEY Color Cards

MIRRO-KROME CARD BY H. S. CROCKER CO., INC., SAN FRANCISCO 1, CALIF.

R+Hole - 1933

K-207

PUBLISHED AND DISTRIBUTED BY PETLEY STUDIOS, PHOENIX, ARIZONA